Keep awake MATTHEW 25:13

Welcome to St. Andrew's

The Twenty-Fourth Sunday after Pentecost

10:00 AM Holy Eucharist • November 8, 2026

Thank you for joining us for worship today!

Welcome to St. Andrew's! If you're visiting this morning, we're delighted you are here. If you'd like information on our programs or would like to talk to someone about the Episcopal Church or becoming a member, please fill out one of the "Welcome" cards in the back of the pew in front of you and drop it in the offering plate as it comes around. There is a place for you here!

If you have a hearing aid equipped with telecoil capability, please note that the church sanctuary has been equipped with this technology.

As a courtesy to others, please turn off or silence your cellphone during the service.

Children

We welcome children of all ages at worship, and hope you will help them follow along in the service as best they can. A Nursery for infants through toddler age is available during the service, located on the second floor of the Parish Hall. Children and youth in preschool through high school attend Sunday School from 9:45 am until they join their families during the Children's Entrance Hymn. Preschoolers need to be picked up by a parent.

Anglican Cycle of Prayer

In the Anglican Cycle of Prayer, we pray for Province de L'Eglise Anglicane Du Congo.

In our own diocese we pray for the clergy and people of St. Patrick's (Madison Heights)

We pray for the clergy and people of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

And we pray for all those throughout the world who suffer for their faith.

The Word of God

Hymn
Once he came in blessing #53, The Hymnal 1982 (Blue Book)

Celebrant Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
People And blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

Celebrant There is one Body and one Spirit;
People There is one hope in God's call to us;
Celebrant One Lord, one Faith, one Baptism;
People One God and Father of all.

Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

O God, whose blessed Son came into the world that he might destroy the works of the devil and make us children of God and heirs of eternal life: Grant that, having this hope, we may purify ourselves as he is pure; that, when he comes again with power and great glory, we may be made like him in his eternal and glorious kingdom; where he lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Please be seated.

The First Lesson Amos 5:18-24

Thus says the Lord, the God of hosts, the Lord: Alas for you who desire the day of the Lord! Why do you want the day of the Lord? It is darkness, not light; as if someone fled from a lion, and was met by a bear; or went into the house and rested a hand against the wall, and was bitten by a snake. Is not the day of the Lord darkness, not light, and gloom with no brightness in it? I hate, I despise your festivals, and I take no delight in your solemn assemblies. Even though you offer me your burnt offerings and grain offerings, I will not accept them; and the offerings of well-being of your fatted animals I will not look upon. Take away from me the noise of your songs; I will not listen to the melody of your harps. But let justice roll down like waters,and righteousness like an everflowing stream.

Psalm 70

1 Be pleased, O God, to deliver me; *
O Lord, make haste to help me.

2 Let those who seek my life be ashamed and altogether dismayed; *
let those who take pleasure in my misfortune
draw back and be disgraced. All Sing Antiphon

3 Let those who say to me "Aha!" and gloat over me turn back, * because they are ashamed.

4 Let all who seek you rejoice and be glad in you; *
let those who love your salvation say for ever,
"Great is the Lord!" All Sing Antiphon

5 But as for me, I am poor and needy; *
come to me speedily, O God.

6 You are my helper and my deliverer; *
O Lord, do not tarry. All Sing Antiphon

The Second Lesson 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18

We do not want you to be uninformed, brothers and sisters, about those who have died, so that you may not grieve as others do who have no hope. For since we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so, through Jesus, God will bring with him those who have died. For this we declare to you by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive, who are left until the coming of the Lord, will by no means precede those who have died. For the Lord himself, with a cry of command, with the archangel's call and with the sound of God's trumpet, will descend from heaven, and the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up in the clouds together with them to meet the Lord in the air; and so we will be with the Lord forever. Therefore encourage one another with these words.

Rejoice! rejoice, believers #68, The Hymnal 1982

The Gospel Matthew 25:1-13

Reader The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, "Then the kingdom of heaven will be like this. Ten bridesmaids took their lamps and went to meet the bridegroom. Five of them were foolish, and five were wise. When the foolish took their lamps, they took no oil with them; but the wise took flasks of oil with their lamps. As the bridegroom was delayed, all of them became drowsy and slept. But at midnight there was a shout, 'Look! Here is the bridegroom! Come out to meet him.' Then all those bridesmaids got up and trimmed their lamps. The foolish said to the wise, 'Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out.' But the wise replied, 'No! there will not be enough for you and for us; you had better go to the dealers and buy some for yourselves.' And while they went to buy it, the bridegroom came, and those who were ready went with him into the wedding banquet; and the door was shut. Later the other bridesmaids came also, saying, 'Lord, lord, open to us.' But he replied, 'Truly I tell you, I do not know you.' Keep awake therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour."

The Sermon The Rev. Felicity Thompson

Hymn
We know that Christ is raised #296, The Hymnal 1982

Baptism of Nora Renee Barker-Lockwood

Celebrant The Candidate for Holy Baptism will now be presented.

Parents and Godparents I present Nora to receive the sacrament of Baptism.

Celebrant Will you be responsible for seeing that the child you present is brought up in the Christian faith and life? I will, with God's help.

Will you by your prayers and witness help this child to grow into the full stature of Christ? I will, with God's help.

Do you renounce Satan and all the spiritual forces of wickedness that rebel against God? I renounce them.

Do you renounce the evil powers of this world which corrupt and destroy the creatures of God? I renounce them.

Do you renounce all sinful desires that draw you from the love of God? I renounce them.

Do you turn to Jesus Christ and accept him as your Savior? I do.

Do you put your whole trust in his grace and love? I do.

Do you promise to follow and obey him as your Lord? I do.

Celebrant Will you who witness these vows do all in your power to support this person in her life in Christ?

People We will.

Celebrant Let us join with those who are committing themselves to Christ and renew our own baptismal covenant. Do you believe in God the Father?

People I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

Celebrant Do you believe in Jesus Christ, the Son of God?

People I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

Celebrant Do you believe in God the Holy Spirit?

People I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting.

Celebrant Will you continue in the apostles' teaching and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and in the prayers?

People I will, with God's help.

Celebrant Will you persevere in resisting evil, and, whenever you fall into sin, repent and return to the Lord?

People I will, with God's help.

Celebrant Will you proclaim by word and example the Good News of God in Christ?

People I will, with God's help.

Celebrant Will you seek and serve Christ in all persons, loving your neighbor as yourself?

People I will, with God's help.

Celebrant Will you strive for justice and peace among all people, and respect the dignity of every human being?

People I will, with God's help.

Prayers for the Candidate

Celebrant Let us now pray for Nora who is to receive the Sacrament of new birth.

Leader Deliver her, O Lord, from the way of sin and death.

People Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader Open her heart to your grace and truth.

People Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader Fill her with your holy and life-giving Spirit.

People Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader Keep her in the faith and communion of your holy Church.

People Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader Teach her to love others in the power of the Spirit.

People Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader Send her into the world in witness to your love.

People Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader Bring her to the fullness of your peace and glory.

People Lord, hear our prayer.

Celebrant Grant, O Lord, that all who are baptized into the death of Jesus Christ your Son may live in the power of his resurrection and look for him to come again in glory; who lives and reigns now and for ever. Amen.

Thanksgiving Over the Water

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant We thank you, Almighty God, for the gift of water. Over it the Holy Spirit moved in the beginning of creation. Through it you led the children of Israel out of their bondage in Egypt into the land of promise. In it your Son Jesus received the baptism of John and was anointed by the Holy Spirit as the Messiah, the Christ, to lead us, through his death and resurrection, from the bondage of sin into everlasting life.

We thank you, Father, for the water of Baptism. In it we are buried with Christ in his death. By it we share in his resurrection. Through it we are reborn by the Holy Spirit. Therefore in joyful obedience to your Son, we bring into his fellowship those who come to him in faith, baptizing them in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Now sanctify this water, we pray you, by the power of your Holy Spirit, that those who here are cleansed from sin and born again may continue for ever in the risen life of Jesus Christ our Savior.

To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be all honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

Celebrant Nora, I baptize you in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Nora, you are sealed by the Holy Spirit in Baptism and marked as Christ's own for ever. Amen.

Let us pray. Heavenly Father, we thank you that by water and the Holy Spirit you have bestowed upon this your servant the forgiveness of sin, and have raised her to the new life of grace. Sustain her, O Lord, in your Holy Spirit. Give her an inquiring and discerning heart, the courage to will and to persevere, a spirit to know and to love you, and the gift of joy and wonder in all your works. Amen.

Let us welcome the newly baptized.
People We receive you into the household of God. Confess the faith of Christ crucified, proclaim his resurrection, and share with us in his eternal priesthood.

The Peace

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.

Wake, Awake, for Night is Flying

Philipp Nicolai (1556-1608), arr. F. Melius Christiansen (1871-1955)

Wake, awake, for night is flying: the watchmen on the heights are crying. Awake, Jerusalem, arise! Midnight's solemn hour is tolling, his chariot wheels are nearer rolling; prepare, ye virgins wise.

Rise up; with willing feet, go forth, the Bridegroom meet, hallelujah, bear through the night your well-trim'd light, speed forth to join the marriage rite.

Hear thy praise, O Lord, ascending from tongues of men and angels blending with harps and lute and psaltery.

By thy pearly gates in wonder, we stand, and swell the voice of thunder in choral melody. Hallulujah, no vision ever brought, no ear hath ever caught, such bliss and joy: we raise the song, we swell the throng, to praise thee ages all along.

Eucharistic Prayer A

Celebrant It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

For you are the source of light and life, you made us in your image, and called us to new life in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus

Holy, holy, holy Lord Ronald Arnatt (1930-2018)

Celebrant Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself, and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

People Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Celebrant We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All Amen.

Celebrant As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

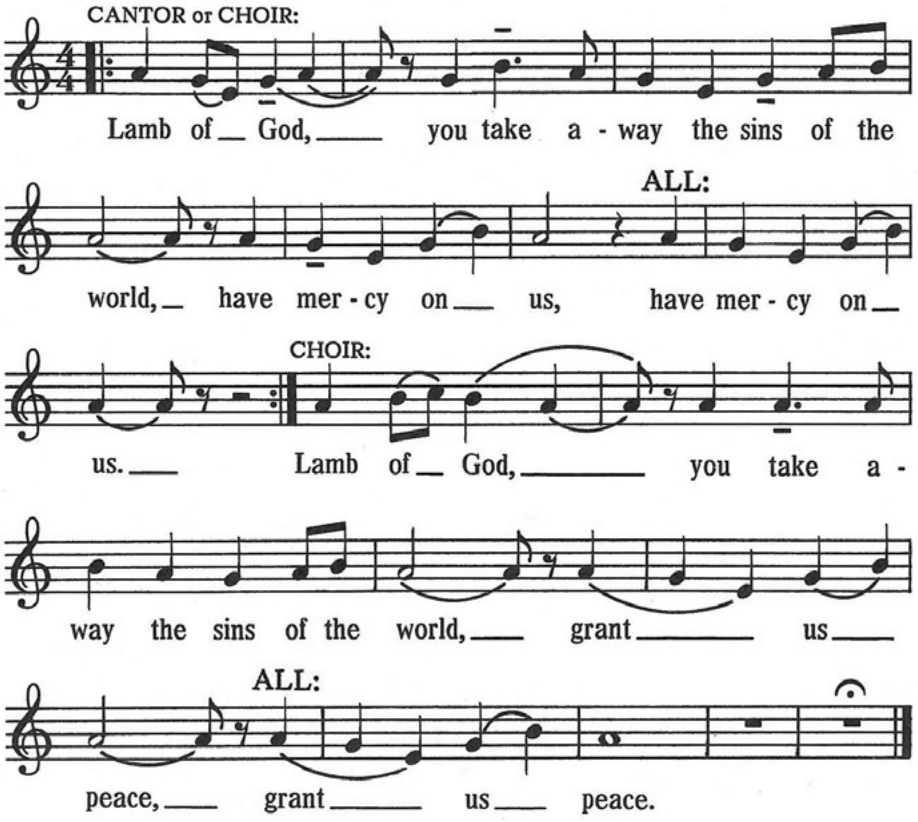

All
Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

A period of silence is kept.

Fraction Anthem

Litany II (Mass for the City) Richard Proulx (1937-2010)

Please come forward and stand or kneel at the rail. The priest will place the bread in your outstretched palm (Consecrated rice wafers are available for those with wheat allergies - simply ask the priest). You may dip (intinct) the bread in the wine in the small cup held by the first Eucharistic minister, or drink from the large chalice held by the second Eucharistic minister.

Please know that Christ is fully present in both the bread and the wine - there is no requirement to receive both. If you do not wish to receive communion, you may come forward, cross your hands over your chest, and receive a blessing.

MEDICAL DECISION-MAKING

Documents That Speak for You: Wills, Trusts, and Living Wills
Today at 11:30 am in the Chapel

If you couldn't speak for yourself tomorrow, would your wishes be honored? Join the Episcopal Health Ministry for a presentation on the vital documents everyone should have—regardless of age.

Leslie Dubin, MSW, a clinical social worker for the University of Michigan Hospital's Geriatric Inpatient Consultation Team, returns to cover healthcare-specific issues like living wills. Wills, Trusts and Estates attorney Leah Tremonti of Tremonti Law PLLC, will discuss legal affairs including wills and trusts. Come learn from Leslie and Leah about the importance of these end-of-life documents, the peace of mind they provide, and how to get started.

Blood Pressure Screenings
The Episcopal Health Ministers will provide blood pressure screenings in the church office after the service this morning.

Upcoming Events

Homelessness in Our Community
Tuesday, November 10, 6:00 pm Light Supper, 6:30 pm Program, in the Parish Hall

On Tuesday, November 10, Katie Hoener, the program administrator of Washtenaw County Community Mental Health will speak about the connections between mental health and homelessness. We hope you will join us for this program as we learn about the crisis of homelessness and begin to discern how St. Andrew's might respond. If you have not already done so, please RSVP to Fr. Paul at pfrolick@standrewsaa.org so we can plan for food.

Fingers Crossed: Learning to Say the Creed Honestly
Thursdays, November 12 & 19 and December 3 at 5:30 pm in the Chapel

Every Sunday we stand and say the Nicene Creed. Some of us say it with conviction. Some say it by rote. Some say it with fingers crossed behind our backs, and some quietly skip the lines we can't get past.

All of that is welcome here. Over three evenings, Paul will look at where the creed came from, what its hardest phrases were actually trying to say, and what it might mean to say "we believe" with integrity, including when doubt is part of the picture. No background needed. Bring your questions and your objections. Please RSVP to Fr. Paul at pfrolick@standrewsaa.org or 585-241-9317.

New Member Welcome!
Sunday, November 15 during all services

We'd like to formally recognize and welcome new members to St. Andrew's during worship on Sunday, November 15. We are sending out invitations to people who are new here in the last six months or so, but we know our records are not complete. If you are new here (and would like to be formally recognized), please reach out to Fr. Paul at pfrolick@standrewsaa.org or 585-241-9317.

Seniors at St. Andrew's (SASA)
Sunday, November 15 at 11:15 am in the Library

Seniors at St. Andrew's (SASA) is a group of self-identified seniors who gather and plan social events, theater outings, brunches, and ways to support activities at St. Andrew's. Join us Sunday, November 15 at 11:15 am in the Library, and bring your ideas for some fun activities. All are welcome! Please see JoAnn Socha or Bob Westveer with questions or ideas.

Celebrate the Feast of St. Andrew!
Sunday, November 22 during the 10:00 am service

Please join us Sunday, November 22 during the 10:00 am service as we celebrate our annual patronal feast with bagpipes and Our Scottish Connexion.

Thanksgiving Day Service
Thursday, November 26 at 10:00 am in the Church

A Holy Eucharist will be held on Thanksgiving Day, Thursday, November 26 at 10:00 am in the Church. The Church Office will be closed November 26-27.

First Meeting:* Christmas Pageant
Saturday, November 28 at 11:00 am in the Chapel

The Christmas Pageant will be performed during the 4:00 pm Family Service on Christmas Eve. Parts for all ages! Can't make the meeting but want to be in the pageant? Contact Norm Richert at nrichert@comcast.net.

Music Notes

Hymn 68: "Rejoice! Rejoice! Believers"
This hymn is an extended meditation on today's Gospel lesson about the wise and foolish maidens, applying that story metaphorically to call us to readiness. Given these themes, it is a perfect pre-Advent hymn, when it has been customarily sung since its origin in a German Pietist collection of hymns. Its author, Laurentius Laurenti (1660-1722) was cantor at the Lutheran church in Bremen. The tune is based on a Welsh folk song, and its haunting melody perfectly fits the text's watchful anticipation. -- Donna Wessel Walker

Wake, Awake, for Night is Flying
This morning's anthem is an a cappella arrangement by F. Melius Christiansen (1871-1955), founder of the renowned St. Olaf Choir, of the famous 16th century hymn tune by Philipp Nicolai (1555-1608) that Bach adapted as the foundation of his Cantata BWV 140. Christiansen's lush, harmonically rich arrangement has became a foundational pillar of the Lutheran collegiate choral tradition since its publication in 1925.
